Praises: What was one way you saw God at work in your congregation this year?

17 people started attending on a regular basis starting in September. One has professed salvation and three baptized and one other added to membership. — Grace Baptist, Virginia

God continually and graciously provided for our needs. — First Baptist, Morris

It was an incredible joy to watch God's people reaching out to each other during the CoVid-19 stay-at-home order. First Baptist church has been encouraging one another both physically and spiritually throughout the pandemic. As a pastor it has warmed my heart as I hear of the discipleship and evangelism that is going on. We continue to praise God for growing FBC both spiritually and numerically. — First Baptist, New Ulm

Witnessing 3 young people (teens) give their testimonies of salvation and desire to become members of the body. — Calvary Baptist, Sleepy Eye

God is bringing about a significant burden for souls, especially the salvation of Muslims in our town. — Cornerstone Baptist, Willmar

We were blessed and encouraged as we saw God answer many prayers in our church body last year. — Faith Baptist, St Paul

God used many times of sickness to show Himself faithful to His people in bringing them through those times of physical affliction. — Berean Baptist, Brooklyn Park

During the Covid-19 outbreak/shutdowns, giving was stable and our people participated faithfully in online meetings. — Fourth Baptist, Plymouth
